How you fit in

As part of our team of "Visionary Managers" Regional Managers play a vital role in building and leading regional teams. In fact, Pivot Point's presence within each community directly flows from the compassionate and inspiring leadership of each Regional Manager.

Your role as a Regional Manager is to lead your staff using Pivot Point's guiding principles and values to intentionally create positive experiences for all of your staff and clients within your region, while striving to expand the reach of your region towards its full potential.

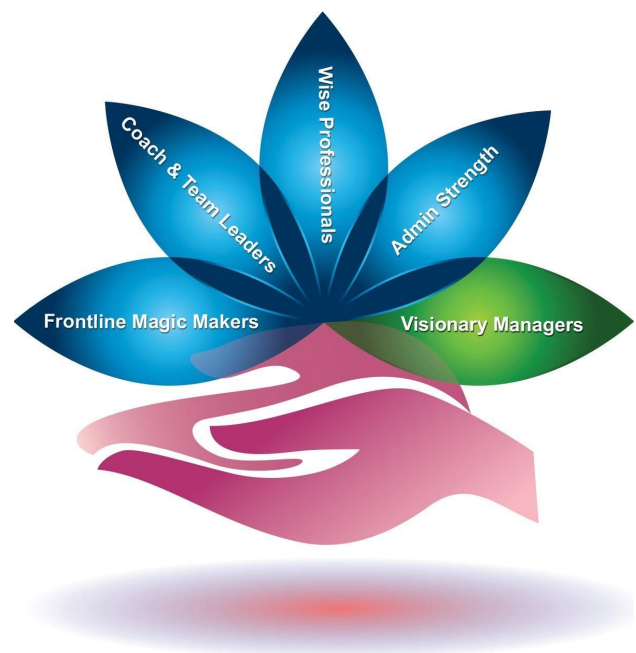

Nature and Scope

- Regional Managers work 50% or more of their hours from home based offices!
- Hours of work are self-scheduled based on needs and goals for your region!
- Community meetings are often required at least one or two evenings per week or occasionally weekends.
- Regional Managers typically start part time with 10 - 15 hours per week and is likely to remain relatively stable once you establish routines... unless you want more!

Key responsibilities

- Marketing: Building a referral network within your region and actively building relationships within that network which result in a strong and growing presence of clients and staff within the community.
- New client Intake: Completing information sessions with potential client families to present Pivot Point's services and help families determine if we are a good fit for their needs.
- HR Support: Actively work with the HR department to hire, train, and directly support the regular flow of new staff needed within your region to meet the growing demand for services. Support the professional development of each member on your team, inspiring them to be at their best.
- Services & Events: Promote the expansion of current services as well as spearhead the introduction of new services, events, and workshops which may be unique to your region.
- Supporting success: Directly overseeing the satisfaction and success of each client family and each staff member within your region.

Is this YOU? Are YOU a visionary manager?
