

DAY CAMP

Stories & Crafts

This group is designed for those who prefer a quieter slower pace and have an interest in stories and crafting!

During each session, staff and participants read parts of a chosen novel, taking breaks to discuss the ideas as they arise. The participants also use crafts as an opportunity to dive deep into a story and learn more about the characters, setting, and plot. Students are immersed in the novel in a variety of fun ways!

Consistent with this gentle pace, this group highlights group dynamics, creativity and emotional engagement through fun activities with like-minded peers!

Cost: $500.00 / 1 Week (9am - 3pm)
