

DAY CAMP

Building Social Skills

This day camp is ideal for kids with a strong foundation in social skills who are ready to grow through fun, interactive activities.

Participants will work together on skills such as social planning, negotiation, compromise, learning about others, and navigating social scenarios.

Each day, participants meet on location for their scheduled activity, bringing their own lunch for the first four days. The camp follows a project-based learning approach, where each day's activities build on the previous one, culminating in a final group project or event. On the last day, participants will collaborate to plan and enjoy a shared lunch together.

Cost: $500.00 / Week

Monday to Friday, 6 hours per day
